Report from the Commodore

So August has come and August has gone, in the blink of an eye, this August we'll long. We went on a cruise and went to the Bay, to celebrate our lives, and I-LYA. Sharon was there with a plan all in place, to run for the gold, to capture first place. We all had a job, we supported the plan, volunteering our time, and demonstrating our can. Mustang Sally was there, entertaining us all, we were out on the floor, when came Damian's song. We've been waiting for you, Tobi Lee said with a grin, she was pointing at me, no she was pointing at him. She said with a grin, now come to the stage, he sang the first verse, he was all of the rage. We shared some good laughs, we sang songs that rhymed, we danced til we crashed, we shared some great times. Then back to the plan, back to the goal, volunteering our time, demonstrating our soul. When the night quickly came, when the hours were done, counted and tallied, computed and run. I sat in my seat, with a beer in my hand, awaiting the news on where we would stand. We took second place volunteering our time, such a great honor, such a great time. Participation was next, on the edge of our seats, second place was announced, we knew we weren't beat. I went up to the front, with a smile on my face, for a kiss and a hug and a flag of First Place. When I turned to our team, with our piece of the pie, remembering that now puts a tear in my eye. We all headed home, I had a nice tan, Homecoming was near, we had a new plan. We had to get busy, there was less than a week, we had so much to do, for our seasonal peak. With each passing day, more progress was done, more progress was done, more progress was done. I surveyed the work, the day of the Fri, I was a bit tense, I cannot lie.

Report from the Commodore Cont'd

.....Colleen saw my concern, as she approached with a smile, Commodore, we got this, and we'll deliver with style. Although Sharon's not here, she's delivered a plan; her heart is still here, there's a phone in her hand. Your committee is strong, and your memberships too, go get some rest, you'll have plenty to do. Brian's a machine, he's been here before, and all will be ready, when we open the door. When Friday night came, and we opened the door, the crowd was still light, as it started to pour. I was under the tent, saying "No more! Who's in charge of this weather?" That's all you Commodore. Our members are resilient, for fun was for not, they held beer can races in our submerged parking lot. We still had the band, we took off our shoes, we hit the dance floor, and we hammered the booze. The rain did soon taper, but the crowd stayed quite thin, I no longer cared, I was enjoying my kin. The next thing I knew, morning had come, the sun had come up, and the day had begun. I had enough sleep and prepared for the day, prepared a small speech on what I would say. When we entered the club, we were amazed, on all that was done, we are still dazed. The food and the décor were amazing to see, amazing to taste, amazing to me. And to see all of you, on this special day, means much more to us, than we can humanly say. When evening arrived, so did the crowd, things went so well, it made all of us proud. Al and Paula arrived, it was their wedding day, and they said they would come, they came here to play. Madison Avenue played well and Ken Campbell too, we tore up our shoes and drank all our booze. And when those cords hit, to our favorite song, Ken said with a grin, come sing along. We danced to that song, and out of our shoes, we danced until dawn, no wait,,, we drank until two. We thank all of you, that were here on this day, that did all this work, that allowed us to play. You make this place great, you make this place strong, you make this place fun, a place to belong. This memory recalled, puts a tear in my eye, a tear in my eye, til the day that I die. Thank you all, for all that you are, for all that you do and all that you are!!!

Report from the Vice Commodore

Vice Commodore

Rain or Shine, Bay View, Brian Rogers, & crew know how to have an amazing Homecoming! Wait, I am getting a little ahead of myself as I need to let you know what Lady Courtney and I have been up to.

July 27th we had our annual Flip Flop with Toledo Sailing Club. This year the Friday night dinner and entertainment was at their place. Lady Courtney and I were able to stop by after the drawing to enjoy the comradery and music. Sunday morning the BVYC & TSC members that spent the night on their boats, were awoken by canon! We needed them to know that we had breakfast burritos as well as the Bloody Mary & Mimosa Bar open for business. With Sharon K. as master chef, Walt V. and I were her helping hands, Colleen C. headed the Bloody Mary bar with Erin L., Michele V., & Courtney served.

August 3rd we held a chicken and shrimp kabob dinner with side of homemade rice, coleslaw, and cookies. This great dinner was a sell out!! We can thank Shelley & Brett Rogers along with their crew consisting of their two boys, Josh & Jackson, Amy W., Heidi & Calleigh D., Keith H., and Tim L. for food prep and cooking. Greg M. took care of the tickets, cookies were provided by Ruthann M., and clean up by Gabe P. Seriously, an amazing crew!!

August 4th Bay View hosted the Redneck Poker Run. Where Colleen C. & Mike D. took care of the Bloody Mary & Mimosa Bar, with clean up help from Timothy K. While I was there for the beginning I had to leave early to get ready for the day's cocktail parties. Lady Courtney and I attended Maumee River Yacht Club's cocktail party at 1:18. Once the cocktail party ended we were greeted by incoming pontoons to take us up the river to Indian Hill Boat Club cocktail party at 3:18. What a wonderful day to take a pontoon ride up the river!

ILYA week was held August 8-12 at Put-In-Bay. This year the party started without us, as work got in the way for Wednesday and Thursday. Don't worry, we made the Friday 10:15 Jet Express by about 3 minutes. This year the rain held off letting us enjoy a short lived vacation. Putt-Putt is always a great time as we are mixed with other clubs from the east and play against some great people from the west. Thank you to Scott Kneisel for continuing to head the event over the years, it's one of my favorite events all week. Let's not forget the AYC vs GCBA softball game! After a two-year rain delay, AYC had a 17 to 12 victory! No trip to the Bay is complete for Lady Courtney and I without a trip to a few wineries and Lobster Bisque for Sunday lunch. And of course the boat ride home where Courtney suns herself and Timothy or I nap on the way back, this year Timothy got the nap.

Friday August 17th Bay View held our Homecoming and while the rain may have downed our spirits for a short time, the band never stopped playing! Saturday morning, I made sure we started off with a literal bang, as I fired the canon three times for a breakfast wake-up call. The 2019 Ball Committee held a breakfast with scrambled eggs, hash browns, bacon, sausage, biscuits, and two kinds of homemade gravy by Ken C. What's a better way to fend off a hangover than a Bloody Mary or Mimosa, as we also had that bar going. What an amazing event that Bay View comes together to put on each year. If you have never been at the club leading up to Homecoming on the Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday afternoon, it is awesome to see the teamwork and how it comes together as some members have been doing the same jobs for years. This year was a little hectic for Lady Courtney and I as we are in "full fundraising mode". We had fabulous help with fundraising this weekend. I think I have everyone, but if I missed you I am sorry, we appreciate all the help. On Friday night Michele V, Gennifer S, and I sold vodka infused whip cream in mini ice cream cones, while Erin L. and Courtney sold tickets for the Booze Wagon. Saturday morning started off at 8 am with breakfast help from Ken C, R/C Martin, Ted B, Steve B (and friend), Gennifer S, Deb G, and Brian R. While Colleen C, Mike and Tricia D took care of the Bloody Mary and Mimosa Bar and 50/50.

Report from the Vice Commodore Cont'd

....Courtney was taking the money and I was trying to help with whatever was needed, I just remember running around and sweating. Saturday our help came from Sue B, Michele V, Tony B who sold tickets for the Booze Wagon in the afternoon. In the evening Lori P sold 50/50, Shelley R and Courtney sold tickets for the Booze Wagon. They were selling tickets faster than you could tear them apart, as the crowd just kept coming in the door! Later that night Elizabeth A, Kristina R and her daughter sold out the mini ice cream cones. Lady Courtney and I can't thank enough our fantastic ball committee or the people who supported our fundraisers. Lady Courtney, thank you for all you did this weekend, you worked you butt off to support the club and me.

As fundraising is in full gear and the Bay View calendar has some upcoming events we are looking to the future. I would like to clear the air as it has been shared with me that there are rumors of the 2019 Commodore Ball having a cost of +$30,000. Let me put that rumor to rest as our budget is consistent with the last few years, we're even using the same venue as TSC and MRYC in 2019. This year our Ball Committee has been doing some different fundraising events to have more people visiting BVYC and partaking in our events to help us reach our financial fundraising goal. These events include the Bloody Mary & Mimosa Bars on the first Saturday of the month or our Sunday Funday Mon Ami wine buckets. As mentioned above we had mini ice cream shots and will have some other ideas at future events. We have had dinners that are $10 or under this year...where in Toledo can you go and get a Hamburger and bottomless fries for $7? We know to some members the Ball seems extravagant or is just too expensive to attend, which is why we are working so hard to keep ticket prices down so all of our BVYC family can attend the 2019 Ball. If anyone has any questions on the club or ball fundraising, please come and talk to me. I open to hear your thoughts or ideas. The 2019 Commodore Ball is March 30 at the Renaissance Toledo Downtown Hotel, room reservations need to be in by March 1st.

Over the last couple of weeks, I have heard members that are interested in chairmanships for next year. If you would like to be a chairman, please come talk to me as I would like to hit the ground running. I know this year a few committees have been unfilled. I am a firm believer in the more you put into an organization, the more you will get back out. I put this challenge to the members to get more involved with the club and let me know if you don't feel like you get more out of it. To the new members this is not like a marina which is just a place to dock your boat. We are a club and the more you get involved the more you will see that we are like a family and have so much more to offer. To our more seasoned members who have been around and see things that we can do better, maybe now is the time to step up and share you experiences to help us grow. Lady Courtney and I want to make this the BEST club in the area and are will work hard to make it happen.

Please continue to bring your family and friends to the club and show them this is a wonderful place to meet old friends and make new ones. If you have any questions regarding membership, please let me know. Please make sure to check out our Upcoming Events flier to join in on our fun. We are selling our Reverse Raffle tickets, $25 each with a half chicken dinner included. We are also looking for baskets and theme basket donations for our upcoming Basket Raffle. If you are willing to donate a themed basket or just a basket please contact me.

NOMINATIONS FOR 2019

Nominations are now open for BVYC

We are looking for Flag Officers and Board Members

You must be a member of BVYC for 2 years

If interested please contact Colleen Cashman 419-346-9537 or Pete Kaiser 419-297-4227

From the Yard Chairman -- Just a friendly reminder that haul out slips are due!

This is regarding the BVYC holiday parade book collection that we will have on-going until November

BVYC has had an entry for the past few years in the Holiday parade that routes through downtown before Thanksgiving. If you haven't participated or have not seen the pictures, you should check it out. Everyone is decked out in Dr. Seuss costumes and we've also added passing out books as we walk the parade route. While you are doing spring cleaning, checking out garage sales, etc. to look for any new/slightly used Dr. Seuss books for kids. Please donate them to BVYC so we can pass out more books this year during the parade.

And this about the Ship Store

Making the Ship Store Great Again!

Check out the new merchandise coming to the ship store.

There are awesome nautical jewelry selections in the showcase! Items with prices are listed on the door. Coming soon will be beer bottle zip up cozies, hats, shirts, and more. Stop in and see the merchandise as it arrives. If you have any suggestions for other items, give your ideas to Laurie Patlin or Sue Blank

SIGN UP FOR BVYC NEWS, HAPPENINGS, & REMINDERS SENT TO YOU VIA TEXT MESSAGE!

From the Home Coming Food Chairman... Preparing, cooking and serving food to our family, friends, and guests to Bay View is a very important job...not taken lightly. I would like to take this chance to give a "BIG THANK YOU" to all that signed up and worked to help in these efforts. Noel Wendt, Chuck Shanteau, Mike Walsh, Tim Swisher, and Richard Gajewski was the Friday night crew that braved the bad weather. John Schoen, Stan and Bobbi Tucker, Josh Schulett, and our newest member Jack Bloom worked Saturday. This crew worked past their sign up times to keep all running smooth and feed all our guests till midnight. Keith and Stacy, thank you for your advice, guidance and use of your equipment. Rory (and crew), Denny and Denise, thank you for stepping up with the cleanup efforts on Sunday. Continued support will be needed next year...POKER RUN!! If I missed anyone, my apologies.
