Report from the Commodore

November is near; we'll be covering our toes. Haul-out a memory, the yard will be closed. The leaves will turn colors, and then blanket the ground. The winds will arrange them, creating that sound. The trees will be bare, the docks will be too. The boaters in mourning and whimpering boo hoo. But before we all get there, we have one month to go. One month of boating, one month to show. October's upon us; it's a great month to be. It's a great month for haunting, and sipping on tea, and spending the evenings in your company. We love spending October, so close to you. Observing your joy, and enjoying it too. Standing so close, staring into your eyes, as you stare right through us, our perfect disguise. Some hear our laughter, that's sometimes our goal. Some hear our footsteps, some feel our soul. We aren't here to harm you, or scare you away, we like sharing our games that we played in the day. We like stacking the chairs, and moving your things, and tickling your nose, oh the joy that it brings. When you're alone, you can feel our great stare, you think that it's nothing, but we're truly right there. Sitting beside you, as you play with your phone, enjoying the moment, no you're not alone. Who placed that glass, at the end of the bar? Who moved my phone? Who moved my car? Where did he go? He was sitting right here? Who moved my keys? Who drank my beer? Who shut off the lights? Hey, I'm using the loo. I'm here in the dark. NOW WHAT WILL YOU DO??? What do you do, on our Halloween nights, when we are all with you, and we turn out the lights? Will you be scared, and reach for your mate? What will you do, to find I'm your new date? What will you do, when you see us all there? When we turn off the lights, will you too be quite scared? We'll be dancing and laughing, and staring at you. You see we know the day; you'll be joining us too. We cannot wait, for your day to be, so we can be with you, for E Turn It Tea. So sip on that tea and turn out those lights, so you can be with us, for all of the nights. There's no way out, just a matter of time, when you will all join us, so sip on that wine. We're fond of you all, and may shorten your days. You will adapt and succumb to our ways. As you turn off your lights and crawl into bed, is your mate still your mate? Or is it me there instead? You sleep alone? The joke is on me?

Report from the Commodore Cont'd

Well under your bed, is where I might be. Waiting for you, to fall asleep, at the time that you do your soul we shall keep. This great time each year, our excitement does soar, as we choose through our ranks, our new Rear Commodore. We know who you are; there is no need to fear. Your name will appear, next to the Rear. Come join our team. We'll be there for you. We blazed that there trail. We'll support what you do. We'll be there for you, for all of your days and when that day comes you'll join our fun ways. You now probably know, now who we are. Just one more hint. We all have a star...

Hello BVCY! Your 2018 needed a nap, so I sat down to write you, this holiday map. October's upon us, and we all will be there. Waiting for you, come if you dare. And if you decide, to stay home instead, we will be waiting, under your bed. Waiting right there, waiting for sleep. And as soon as you do, your soul we shall keep.

As your Commodore would say, "Living the Dream in 2018" Sweet October Dreams Everyone!!!

Report from the Vice Commodore

Vice Commodore
David Krell

October is here, where did summer go? I looked back at past newsletters and found out where it went and what we did. Our Cocktail season is coming to a close & our ball fund raising is starting to build up some steam. But before I get to what we have coming up, I will let you know what we have been up to.

On August 25th Lady Courtney and I made the drive up to Seaway's cocktail party. There was giant Jenga, cornhole, and some other yard games to add fun to the event. While there Courtney and I played a few competitive games of checkers on an oversized table, I think I won the 2 out 3 games...

September 1st we had our 2nd to last Bloody Bar. It had a slow start, but we would like to thank the members who have come out for all the support. Colleen C. has been the captain of this fundraiser and Lady C and I are so thankful for her help. Don't forget we will have the Bloody Mary and Mimosa Bar the morning of the Color Cruise October 6th, $5 for either a yummy Bloody Mary or tasty Mimosa!

Sunday September 2nd we attended the Lobster fest at TSC, what a great event they continue to put on each year. If you leave there hungry you did something wrong! They have a few different dinner options but Lady Courtney and I each had steak, crab legs, corn on the cob, and bake potato. Of that food we took home steak, crab legs, and baked potato....needless to say they are healthy servings. Not to be done with the Labor day weekend, on Monday we hosted a cook out of hamburgers, brats, and hot dogs. Thank you for everyone that stopped by to spend the holiday with us, we served 55 lunches. Thank you RC Martin for cooking the burgers, Denise C for donating potato salad, and the other members who brought a dish to share.

Vice Commodore's Report Cont'd

September 8th we headed up north to Detroit Beach Boat Club for their cocktail party and basket auction. We gained a few more ideas for our baskets, along with taking a couple home with us as Lady Courtney always seems to find something she likes! We also got to see Lake Erie crashing her waves against the break wall there. Later that evening I went back to the club for a sleepover inside the club as I knew the water was going to come in. Thank you to all the members that helped in the afternoon to prep the pumps and piping to make sure we didn't have a problem Saturday night. Now Sunday night was a different story, I got a text about 9:30 that my lines were tight. Lady Courtney and I came out to the club to adjust and it was just in time as some of the water was coming through the basement walls and in the door. We were able to drop some other pumps in and start up the trash pump that had been set the day before. Thank you to Randy S, Steve C, Tony B, Nate E who got the pumps working and Courtney who moved everything from the bottom shelves in the kitchen up on top. Thankfully, she also made sure I didn't fall off the dock when I adjusted the lines in thigh-high water.

September 21st the ball committee held a spaghetti dinner, we served 77 dinners! Thank you to the members who came and helped out, as it was very much needed and appreciated. Thank you Jack B., Dan P., John S., Cindy and Jim K., Ken A., Alberta E., Marcia M., and Ruthann M.

As I mentioned, we needed dinner help and I will take this time to remind the members who need 10 hours for the second half of the year that we have plenty of upcoming events that will need help with each month. Check the flyers around the club for dates and events. Please let me know what events you can help with. Remember, if you don't get your work hours in, it is $25 per hour.

For membership, I am sorry I have over looked mentioning the new members we have gained this year. Please welcome the following people to the club: Cheryl Wray, Timothy Langlois, John Schoen, Nathan Edmunds, Erin Kneisel, Brett Baith, George Kuene, Jack Bloom, Sharon Kneisel, Kevin Hatch, & Edward Griffin. Please continue to bring family and friends to the club as we are still looking to grow the membership.

For upcoming Ball Fundraising events here are some of the next few but please check out the flyers in the newsletter and around the club.

October 5th Hobo Dinner from 6-8pm

October 12th Chicken Paprikash dinner from 6-8pm

October 20th we have the Last Man Standing Event. $25 a ticket, half a chicken dinner.

You must have a ticket for this event to enter the club.

November 3rd Wine Bus Trip $50 per person, 4 wineries, 4 tasting at each stop, with lunch included. Three of the four stops have hard ciders or beer as well as wine. Sign up is at the bar, and those who pay have their seat reserved. Currently we have one bus so sign up early! If there is enough interest we could get a second bus, but we must fill it or there will only be one.

We are still looking for a Rear Commodore and Recording Secretary for next year.

Please see me or anyone from the bridge if you have any questions. Thank you all for your support.

Report from the Rear Commodore

Wow, where has the summer gone? I hope everyone has had a great year at BVYC boating. Even though I was stuck at my dock this year working in the cabin I heard boats going by all the time. That was great to see so much activity.

Unfortunately Moe and I had a lot going on this year and missed some great times at the events that were had at several clubs. We have regrouped and are looking forward to some upcoming events.

Rear Commodore
Charles Martin

Some of the events we are planning are >>

Adult Halloween Party

Possibly a Kids Halloween party

Ohio/Michigan Football party

Other ones to follow

I will be putting up fliers for all of the events

I would like to thank you for your support this year and the upcoming years ahead. I am looking forward to represent BVYC.

Please do not hesitate to contact me if you have ideas or complaints.

Rear Commodore

Chuck Martin 419-466-3167

We are Still Looking for a Rear Commodore and a Recording Secretary. Please consider running for these positions so they will not be left un-filled. Contact Colleen Cashman—419-346-9537 or any member of the Bridge.

We are in need of volunteers to help clean some of the areas in our club that have been neglected or overlooked. We have all the cleaning supplies and equipment. We just need the elbow grease. If you need work hours or are just interested in helping, please call Sherron Ward > 419-754-7963 or 727-809-8110. we have a list of chores to be done. Thanks in advance for your concern and help....Sherron

Chateau Aeronautique Winery

Here the theme is vintage airline, with a 1974 German glider wing for a bar top & vintage destination posters heralding legacy airlines. Plans are afoot to develop the vineyard and eventually dig a barrel cave into the side of a hill. The Irish Hills Kitchen is where we'll enjoy lunch!

BlackFire Winery

"Seize the Moment" at this amazing winery owned & operated by a retired Fire Department Lieutenant! Specializing in unique and delicious small batches of wine, you can't wait too long or you may miss out. Their wine list is continually changing along with a great list of tasty ciders and beers!

Meckley's Flavor Fruit Farm

This stop is Courtney's favorite...it could be the Great Dane on the bottle of wine but she swears its both the amazing ciders & tasty wines that make this stop a Must Do! Meckley's has been hand crafting artesian ciders for over 50 years and you can even grab a few treats in their bakery!

Pentamere

At Pentamere, old-fashioned winemaking craftsmanship meets innovative design in a 100 year old building in downtown Tecumseh. Get ready to experience great wines from the vines of the Great Lakes!

Due to higher bus fees the trip is a bit more than we originally expected. VC Krell worked hard to get as many tasting experiences as possible to make sure you're getting your money's worth. We promise a good time with great wine and even better friends!
